

Alison Tocci
President/Group Publisher
Time Out New York

Time Out New York (TONY) is New York City's most comprehensive weekly entertainment listings publication—"the obsessive guide to impulsive entertainment."

As President and Group Publisher, Alison Tocci oversees all Time Out print and online initiatives in North America, including Time Out New York, Time Out New York Kids, and Time Out Chicago.

Prior to becoming President, Alison held the titles of Ad Director and Publisher and oversaw the advertising and marketing departments for the weekly publication, as well as ad sales for all ancillary TONY products, including the annual Student Guide, the annual Eating & Drinking Guide, and Time Out New York Kids.

Prior to working with Time Out New York, Alison was launch Publisher of monthly Brooklyn Bridge magazine, General Manager of Brooklyn Paper Publications in Brooklyn, NY and Advertising Manager for Nashoba Publications, a chain of weekly community newspapers in her home state of Massachusetts.

A graduate of Boston University, Alison is chair of the board of the Waterfront Museum in Red Hook, on the boards of the Brooklyn Economic Development Corporation and NYC & Co., a founding member of the Brooklyn Tourism Initiative, and active in the Returned Peace Corps Volunteers of America.
